This Month in Wellness: Welcome to Quarter 3!

Can you believe it? We're already entering the third quarter of the 2010 Wellness Warriors program!

If you're following along, this means an increase in your activity level goes into effect. We've designed the Wellness Warrior program to follow a progression of increased physical activity. Hopefully you've become more active since joining Wellness Warriors in February. In quarter 3 we're requiring at least 6 hours of physical activity and one Wellness Warrior event tracked on your monthly Wellness Bucks Tally Sheet to maintain "compliant" status. The more you move, the more points you earn for Wellness Buck Prizes!

Also, one of the program requirements to receive Wellness Buck

Prizes is to submit a goal sheet to your Wellness Coach. Goal sheets are a very simple and useful tool to hold yourself accountable and remind yourself of what you'd like to achieve!

For and program rules, visit the Wellness Warrior website and click on "How it Works" and "Wellness Bucks Program". We also upload all of the events' powerpoint presentations on the "Tips and Articles" page.

We'd like to thank you for participating in this great opportunity to become more physically active and healthier at Wayne State University. Feel free to stop by or contact us at:

Tip of the Month: Laugh!

Laughter's health benefits are no joke. A sense of humor helps us deal with the difficulties of life and ward off depression. But, laughter is not only helpful for our minds.

According to the Mayo Clinic, laughter's benefits are mounting; it can't cure all ailments, but the positive effects are helpful to your body during stressful times. When you start to laugh, it actually induces physical changes in your body.

An increase of oxygen-rich air, endorphins, and circulation can give you a relaxed feeling, reducing some of the symptoms of stress.

The short and long term effects of laughing include:

- Stimulates your organs
- Activates and relieves your stress response
- Soothes tension and stomach-aches; eases digestion
- Improves your immune system
- Relieves pain
- Increases personal satisfaction

QUICK TIP

Brought to you by:

Go ahead and give it a try. Turn the corners of your mouth up into a smile and then give a laugh, even if it feels a little forced. Once you've had your hearty chuckle, take stock of how you're feeling. Are your muscles a little less tense? Do you feel more relaxed or buoyant? That's the natural wonder of laughing at work.

These muffins are a great low-fat way to start your Saturday morning. Pair with some fresh fruit and enjoy on your back

Recipe of the Month

Oatmeal Fruit Muffins

Serves 12

Ingredients:

- Vegetable oil spray
- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 3/4 cup uncooked quick-cooking or regular rolled oats
- 1/3 cup toasted wheat germ
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup fat-free milk
- 1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- Egg substitute equivalent to 1 egg, or 1 egg
- 1/4 cup unsweetened applesauce
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/2 cup snipped dried figs or apricots

Directions:

Preheat the oven to 400°F. Line a 12-cup muffin pan with paper bake cups or lightly spray with vegetable oil spray.

In a medium bowl, combine the flour, oats, wheat germ, baking powder, cinnamon, baking soda, and salt. Make a well in the center.

In another medium bowl, stir together the remaining ingredients except the figs.

Stir the liquid mixture into the dry mixture until just moistened (batter should be lumpy). Fold in the figs.

Spoon the batter into the muffin cups, using about 1/4 cup batter for each cup.

Bake for 10 to 12 minutes, or until a wooden toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean. Cool on a wire rack for 5 minutes. Remove the muffins from the bake cups. Serve warm or at room temperature.
